REDS IN LABOR MEETING.

An attempt was made yesterday to turn a meeting of unemployed workmen into an anarchist demonstration, and for half an hour the big meeting hall in Cooper Union, New York, where the meeting took place, was the scene of wild excitement, during which red flags were raised, the police denounced and incendiary speeches made.

Alexander Berkman, the anarchist who some years ago shot Henry O. Frick, a steel company official, during the Homestead strike in Pennsylvania, was dragged from the hall by the police and locked up. A young woman who gave her name as "Mary Smith" and who stood by Berkman, was also arrested, and Emma Goldman, recognized leader of the "Reds" in this country, was made to leave the hall.

Not since the disturbing scenes following a meeting held in Grand Central palace, to celebrate the acquittal of William D. Haywood, accused of the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, has the anarchist element raised such disturbances in New York.

Only the stern measures adopted by the police prevented the meeting from becoming an out-and-out anarchist affair, although the Unemployed and Brotherhood Welfare Association which planned the meeting, had no other intention than to present its claim that there are thousands of idle workmen in this city.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is the best thing to use for piles. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ASSAULTED BY PRISONER.

While his shackles were temporarily loosened for the purpose of permitting him to write a check, J. J. Powell, in Suffolk, yesterday afternoon, made a ferocious attack on W. H. Kitchen. He battered Kitchen on the head with the handcuffs, knocking him down and likely would have fractured the skull but for interference by court officers. There was a bitter feud between the men, who are farmers, of Maguolis. Powell had been arrested on charges of poisoning horses, mules, hogs and other live stock owned by Kitchen. That happened Saturday night. Powell was arrested Sunday and confessed. He is said to belong to a "white cap" society, which threatened it is life unless he took revenge on Kitchen. Powell says his "pals" will yet shoot every member of the Kitchen family. He would have applied the torch, so officers say, to the Kitchen home, but for the fact there is no daughter whom he did not wish to harm.

Powell was captured by Hurricane Branch and Police Chief Brinkley. Branch says Powell is supposed to have two jars full of money. Justice Deverry sent Powell's case to the Circuit Court and the prisoner was held without bail.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are for weak back, backache, rheumatic pains, inflammation of the bladder and all other annoyances due to weak kidneys. They are sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

VICTIM OF A MANIAC.

After 10 days of intense suffering Cornelius Baker, 60 years old, a retired farmer of near East Berlin, Pa., is dead as the result of wounds inflicted by John Boserman, the lunatic who became violent on the way to be hanged, and murdered assaulted three men with a hammer.

After Boserman had killed Nathaniel Baker and John Butt, he attacked Cornelius Baker, who had gone to their rescue. The old man was unarmed, and he was more seriously wounded than the others, receiving blows upon the head which caused concussion of the brain.

Baker's condition remains critical, while Nathaniel Baker is improving, and will recover. Mrs. Baker, whom Boserman compelled to stand and watch under threats of death, is a nervous wreck. Boserman is confined in chains in the Adams county almshouse at Gettysburg.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Margaret, daughter of Raymond Marcan, of Cumberland, Md., was fatally burned yesterday while playing with matches, dying yesterday evening, four hours after the accident occurred. She was celebrating her fourth birthday, and with her little brother, had gone to light some candles he had discovered that were to be used in the celebration.

Many old houses in Holland have a special door which is never opened save on special occasions, when there is a marriage or a death in the family. The bride and bridegroom enter by this door, and it is then nailed or barred up until a death occurs, when it is opened and the body is removed by this exit.

The statistics of the Suez canal traffic for 1907 show that out of a total of 4,267 ships passing through the canal, aggregate tonnage 14,728,434, the American flag was flown by only nine ships, with a tonnage of 12,587. The top liners were the British (2,651 ships), German (580), French (239), Dutch (123), Austrian (129), while the only maritime nations distanced by America were Belgium, China, Egypt, Siam and Portugal.

Emile Berliner, of Washington, who has for some time been at work on propellers for aerial craft, has lately constructed an experimental one of such power that, placed horizontally, it is capable of lifting 360 pounds in a calm straight up into the air. There is no cawing and no screaming; simply a muffled whirring sound, and a two-bladed fan, the latter having a surface of about 36 square

Without even trying to establish a record, fifty-six girls of Hallam, York county, Pa., at a picnic given them at the State Park by E. M. Seiple, a restaurateur of the town, ate eleven gallons of ice cream, drank a barrel of lemonade, and consumed more cakes and sandwiches than it would be polite to mention. Mr. Seiple, who was somewhat dismayed, says his next picnic will be for the boys.

RICHEST GIRL IN OKLAHOMA.

Bath Tate Brady, of Oklahoma, is the richest girl in the far west. She is 12 years old and has in her own right an income of $400 a day. Her mother was a half-blooded Cherokee Indian. Miss Brady received 800 acres of public land on the allotment, and on this tract oil wells have been developed producing daily 2,000 barrels of oil.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. 'I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up as you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three girls were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time she was almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car.' For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
